Captain Merry Writes.

Arthur L. Merry, commandant's clerk at the Naval Station, Hawaii, received a letter from his uncle, Captain Merry, yesterday, by the America Maru. Captain Merry writes from Manila, under date of April 18th, to the effect that he would shortly leave Hongkong, and take one of the vessels of the Empress line to the Coast. He was in good health, and all of his party were well. The captain was anxious to get away from Manila, however, before he or any of his party should become sick. He says that there is some plague in Manila, but that they did not mind a little thing like that. The captain reports that he and his party have lost no time, and that they have been at work on the preparation of the reports of the survey of the harbor at Guam. He says that, with the improved instruments and facilities at hand in Manila, very rapid progress has been made in the work. Captain Merry will probably arrive on the Coast a day or so after the America Maru reaches San Francisco. He is expected to get back in Honolulu about the last of next month.

At the Opera House.

The farewell night of the Stanton Opera Company brought out a fairly large and fashionable audience. Being benefit night the audience were kindly disposed, although much of the beautiful music of De Koven's opera was exceedingly well rendered by the principals.

Miss Stanton, looking very charming in a Venetian boy's costume of blue and silver, was the recipient of numerous floral tokens, the curtain of the first act being held while four ushers toted down the numerous leis and baskets for the star.

The other principals were not forgotten, as there were enough wreaths to go around and extend into the ranks of the chorus. The company leaves for New Zealand by the Sierra, after a not too successful season, but bearing the good wishes of a large portion of the theater-going community.

GEORGE WASHINGTON'S QUEUE.

It Hid a Luxuriant Suit of Straight and Very Dark Hair.

The Father of His Country concealed a luxuriant suit of hair beneath his queue wig. Many now wish the old fashion were in vogue to conceal thinned hair or baldness. Yet no one need have thin hair nor be bald, if he cure the dandruff that causes both. Dandruff cannot be cured by scouring the scalp because it is a germ disease and the germ has to be killed. Newbro's Herpicide kills the dandruff germ—no other hair preparation will. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." There's no cure for dandruff but to kill the germ.

Miss Elizabeth Morehead died at the residence of her brother on Judd street shortly after midnight. The funeral takes place this afternoon at 3 o'clock. The remains will be interred in the Catholic cemetery.
